TRAINING CONSORTIUM

About Us

The Elizabethtown-Hardin County Industrial Foundation Training Consortium (EIFTC) is a collaboration of the Hardin County Facility Managers Association and Elizabethtown Community & Technical College to provide industry-led training programs and training equipment.

Why Join EIFTC

- ✓ Local and cost-effective training solutions
- ✓ Workforce needs assessment
- ✓ Customized curriculum and flexible class schedules
- ✓ Strategic community partnerships and invaluable networking opportunities

Course Offerings

Although initial course offerings were in the maintenance area, the selection has broadened to include computer applications, regulatory activities and management training. Several thousand participants from over 50 businesses, industries, governmental agencies and the general public have completed EIFTC courses.

Our History

The Elizabethtown-Hardin County Industrial Foundation Training Consortium (EIFTC), formed in 1987, is a partnership dedicated to workforce excellence and includes representatives from business, industry, the Industrial Foundation and Elizabethtown Community & Technical College (ECTC). The primary purpose of this organization is to develop and implement various training programs for local industry, to upgrade skills of current employees and to provide continuity of educational development for students who may be considered for employment after graduation.
